Author of Open Your Heart With Basketball

Christopher Bibey started playing the game of basketball at the age of six and has been enjoying the game ever since. His involvement in the sport has included everything from playing at the high school and college level to being offered several professional basketball contracts.

Now that his playing days are over, Chris spends the majority of his time building his career as a freelance writer and author. Even though he enjoys taking on a number of different assignments, his favorites are based on basketball in particular and sports in general. His work has been published in both national and regional publications, as well as several well-known websites. This includes Big Season Sports, Insight Magazine, and Hoopsvibe.com, among others.

When not writing, Chris enjoys watching sports and in particular cheering on the West Virginia University Mountaineers. In addition, he is currently involved in the early stages of starting his own online-based business.
